

Background

Previously revised in June 2015, the Documentation Professional Practice Guideline (PPG) has been reviewed and updated to expand on current documentation standards and expectations.

This PPG sets out direction and expectations of RT's when documenting in several methods (e.g., electronic), formats, (e.g., templates) and practice settings (e.g., while supervising, or on transport), and the potential implications if the standards are not met or privacy is breached.
